Pastor Rodriguez Passes - It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Pastor William Rodriguez last Sabbath, 11-13-2021 at 11:30 am due to complications from COVID-19. Pastor Rodriguez has served faithfully in the Ohio Conference for 14 years - beginning in 2007 as a bi-vocational pastor in Lorain & Youngstown, then leading the Northern Hispanic District of churches, and most recently as district pastor for the Canton region in northern Ohio. Pastor Rodriguez was 58 years old and is survived by his wife Lucy; his three children: Natasha, William Jr., and Kevin; and two granddaughters. Our deepest condolences go out to the entire Rodriguez family and the members of the Canton, Carrollton, Wooster, and Massillon Adventist churches. Please keep these families in your prayers. Currently, we have no other information for services.

Move With God - "Maybe it's time to not ask God to bless our personal preferences or plans. Rather, [we should] ask for God to open our spiritual eyes, our spiritual ears, to see where He's working - and instead of asking God to bless our plans we watch, listen. We see God moving. Let us move with Him." - Dave Gemmell, NAD Ministerial Association associate director, during NAD staff worship on Nov. 10, 2021
