Havstack Movie Sabbath - Mark your calendar for February 26th and join us for a Haystack & Snack Lunch and a Movie after divine worship during fellowship lunch. The movie is based on the incredible true story from the New York Times best seller, "Heaven is Real." It recounts the true story of a smalltown father who must find the courage and conviction to share his sons' extraordinary, life changing near death experience with the world. It will touch your heart, capture your mind, and impact your life forever. Join your family for lunch and a movie!

BOOST YOUR HEALTH! Join lifetalk.net on Feb. 18-24, at 8 PM to learn how to boost your immune system, increase energy, reach peak mental performance, and improve relationships. Pastor John Bradshaw of "It Is Written" will talk with medical experts about achieving optimal physical, mental, and spiritual health.

Restore Your Mental Health - The pandemic has unearthed mental health needs that have been simmering for years. Mental health professionals and lay members have their roles in meeting this need. Join NAD Health Ministries for RESTORED - a virtual mental health & wellness summit, March 31-April 3. To learn more, go nadhealth.org/restored and get restored!

The Band of Brothers will meet Sunday, February 27th at 1 PM at the church social hall. George Conrad will lead out with the topic "All important choice we all make." We will me for lunch, study and 2022 event planning; all are welcome to join our band as we are "Working for Christ from the Inside Out".

Winter Church Closing Procedures – Cancellation by Friday evening or not later than 8 AM on Sabbath via Phone, Text & Email and the One Call NowTM system. Also, the home page of our website and on our prerecorded phone message. Be sure you see Mark if you are not on the One Call system.

February Birthdays Yet to Come Emily Martinez, 27th & Cheryl Brink, 28th! May God richly bless each one abundantly in the New Year and beyond!
