Prayers Continue for Many - Sanctions and weapons and fierce resistance and humanitarian aid are entirely appropriate against Russia at a time like this. But they will not stop future invasions from happening, nor will they dissuade despots and dictators from doing what despots and dictators do. The war in Ukraine will one day be over, and before long another will begin. And when it does, we'll ask ourselves the same questions again: Haven't we learned from the lessons of the past? How can one country do this to another? What about all the innocent people and the tragic loss of life? There is a war raging in hearts everywhere. The great controversy between Christ and Satan is playing out before our eyes. As we see an armed conflict taking place in the world, we must not forget the even greater war that is raging in hearts and minds, in the lives of defeated people who desperately need intervention.

How is God asking you to intervene? The victimized, the displaced, and the fearful need you. Right now. They are all around you. Surely, it is time to do all we can to save God's children.

The Adventist Development and Relief Agency is scaling-up operations to deploy humanitarian assistance for children and families displaced by the war in Ukraine.

The relief agency has launched a fundraising campaign to strengthen programs for refugees from Ukraine and other global communities. Adventist church volunteers from those regions are helping us to distribute food, water, hygiene supplies. In Romania, we are already providing shelter to refugees in youth centers and church buildings and expect to accommodate hundreds of families. ADRA will also supply welcome packages with clothes, basic needs, and cash vouchers since banks in Ukraine have suspended operations. ADRA plans to provide long-term psychological counseling support and other health care services to the vulnerable population residing in isolated settlements. You can help direct too as well. Peace - Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. John 14:27, NIV.

Evergreen Youth Protection

In our diligence toward protecting our children & youth, we require that a background check and training needs renewed or completed for the first time. If you are currently working with youth or would like to be cleared to do so; please go to www.ncsrisk.org/adventist and log into your account or create one for a 30-minute training video and 25 question quiz taking about an hour. A FREE background check needs to be filling in once and it is updated every 2 years with SS & DL Numbers. We thank you for wanting to volunteer to care for our youth.
