We Mourn with and Pray for those whose lives have been irrevocably changed when a shooter opened fire this week at the Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, TX, killing 19 students and two adults. As the world church statement declared, "Pursuits of peace and the preservation of life are to be the goals of Christians. Evil cannot be effectively met with evil but must be overcome with good. Seventh-day Adventists, with other people of goodwill, wish to cooperate in using every legitimate means of reducing, and eliminating where possible, the root causes of crime." We can't keep thinking we are helpless in this. We can do something. Prayer and focus on God, share Him, and place Him 1st all things. And in echoing the words of the Psalmist, may God heal the brokenhearted and bind up their wounds (Ps. 147:3, NIV).
