Monday, We Celebrate Memorial Day

We remember all who died while on active service to our country. A reminder that all Flags should be set at half-mast from Sunrise to Noon, then quickly hoisted to full mast at noon. If you do not have a flag that has that capability, it is acceptable to put a Black Ribbon at the top of the flag. Also, as passed by congress, at 3 PM in the afternoon we should all pause in a moment of silence and remember all those who have died in active service to our country. As a reminder, here is a link to the Memorial Day website that discusses the history of and all things Memorial Day. <https://www.usmemorialday.org>
