Spiritual Perspective - As Christians, faith serves as a beacon of hope. Emphasizing the importance of compassion, community, and selfless love, Christians are called to address the multifaceted contributors to loneliness. By weaving threads of faith into the fabric of society, we can provide a lifeline to those ensnared by isolation and pave a path toward a more connected, spiritually nourished, and resilient community. For believers, the call to action is not merely societal but a divine imperative, a journey towards healing the brokenhearted and restoring the bonds that unite us in Christ. “Pray that this effort will reach many for our Lord and Savior,” - Alexander Bryant, NAD president.

“Come Adore Him” – A NBC Special Christmas Program - In collaboration with the Texas Conference, and Interfaith Broadcasting Commission, will be shown on NBC affiliates in the U.S. Christmas Day.

“Come Adore Him” features the preaching ministry of Carlton P. Byrd, along with the music ministry of gospel recording artists, Jonathan McReynolds, and Naomi Raine (of Maverick City Music), Southwestern Adventist University Singers and Orchestra. Check your local listings.
