News From Haiti - Over 50 churches are closed across the region amid surges of Violence. “There are more than 2,000 Adventist families displaced, including 18 pastoral families, conference administrators, and hundreds more who have lost their belongings,” Church leaders are seeing many church members and their families fleeing in search of safety, and violence and uncertainty are part of daily life. However, thousands are still being baptized in Haiti. Churches that are open for Sabbath worship services do so only a few hours during the early afternoon to allow enough time for members to return home before sundown. Others meet in sheds, homes, rented spaces, or outdoors. Others watch church services online or tune into Radio Esperance, the church’s radio station. ADRA, (the Adventist Development and Relief Agency) in Haiti has been assisting thousands of displaced families with food and necessities across critical communities in the country for several months now. Keep our brothers and sisters in Haiti in your prayers!
